

WE NOMINATE

Henry Stuart Patterson, II, the talented and long-working Mayor of the Borough of Princeton, whose direction of the New Jersey Conference of Mayors has reflected great credit on his municipality and has underscored his stature and continuing development as one of this state's political leaders. As Patterson, about to be 43 (on Tuesday, June 15), completed his one-year presidential term here last week at the Conference's Annual Forum, it was the consensus of observers, ranging from the chief executives of New Jersey cities to seasoned journalists, that Patterson — a Republican in the Democratic stronghold of Mercer County — is "a comer in Jersey."

It was in 1961 that Patterson, a native of New York and with a markedly Democratic family background, made his debut as a candidate for elective office. Active for several years in Republican organizations, but more closely aligned with Independents than with the standard-bearers of Republican orthodoxy, Patterson waged an energetic door-to-door campaign, shrewdly capitalized upon the emotionalism of Urban Renewal, and trounced the Democratic incumbent, Raymond F. Male. He capsuled his own approach to the mayoralty in these terms: "My entry into politics is as an interested citizen. I have no ambition in this field other than to serve the Borough."

Patterson's impact in public affairs has been gratifying to his early supporters and, year by year, more and more reassuring to those who envisioned in his election the re-creation of the stand-pat Republican hegemonies of pre-World War II years and the 1950's. An easy victor over former Borough Mayor Minot C. Morgan, Jr. in 1963, and now "running" for his third successive two-year term, the 53rd mayor in the Borough's history recalls the dedication of the late P. MacKay Sturges and, in some measure, the ebullience of Mayor Male in handling an ever-demanding and at times thankless assignment.

It is probable that Patterson, in a sense the spokesman for Princetonians who have established roots here since 1950, will never receive a higher tribute than he did late in 1961 after his success at the polls. He was interviewed in his Westcott Road home by a perceptive reporter who had campaigned against him as a Democratic Committeewoman in a toss-up Borough District. She concluded her profile of Patterson: "After two hours of animated talk, off the record and on, I told him I thought he had won the race because he is his own man and that I was sorry I had not voted for him."

As executive vice-president of the Elizabethtown Water Company, which in 1962 acquired control of the Princeton Company, the Mayor is a "driving commuter" who annually logs 4,000 miles between the Borough and Elizabeth. Patterson, whose background includes High Honors in Economics as a member of Princeton University's Class of 1944 and distinguished World War II service as an air observer with the Field Artillery, ranks among the "most available" of Borough Mayors of the past three decades and can point to a near-perfect attendance record when it comes to the myriad meetings that are an integral part of his life.

For striving to cope realistically with the thorny issues confronting the Princeton Area; for giving to Princeton the devotion and concern which he feels are the due of the "center we all love"; for speaking to his own convictions even in the face of peaking opposition; he is our nominee as

MERGER EXAMINED
At Public Hearing. Nearly 150 residents turned out for Tuesday's public hearing on the proposed Borough-Township school merger.

"This is a volatile issue," said Borough school board president Graham Rohrer at the onset of the session at Nassau Street School. Nothing that followed was to prove him wrong. At stake and up for public vote in October is the regionalization of two multi-million dollar school systems.

A number of Borough voters gave the impression that regionalization is egalitarianism by inevitable, others that it is desirable, and some were obviously battling hard to bring about solutions short of merger.

"All citizens want to know," Mrs. John H. Marks of 107 Moore Street told the Borough Board, "the precise form regionalization will take."

"Would a parent have the selection of where a child would go to school?" asked Mrs. Inez Aldridge. She was told no.

"I want my child to go to the John Witherspoon School, but according to this he would go to Johnson Park. I don't want this. With the Negro problem, you are going to run into the same thing they have in the big cities. What is going to happen to the ideal Princeton Plan?"

"Appreciation!" Charged. "The way it looks right now," said Charles Cornforth of 71 Westcott Road, "it looks like we are trying to appease the Township. This is distressing and it says nothing this evening that allays this matter."

"Is there no other solution to the problem of the Township leaving us? I understand what is bothering them, they have no voice on the school board. Is there any chance that some other solution could be considered?"

DUNK A PIECE OF CHEESECAKE: This bit of vanilla cheesecake is Barbara Noble of Cranbury, this year's Queen of Hearts at the Dutch Neck School. Barbara, who is in eighth grade, will be available for dunking Saturday at the Girl Dunk, West Windsor PTA Fair. We hasten to add that Barbara is not making this sacrifice alone; former Queens of Hearts will also be dunked, to give the 1965 Queen a chance to dry out.

Orren J. Turner of 39 Hamilton Avenue wanted to know "if you have a legal opinion from the State Department of Education on the question, once we are regionalized, can we get out of it if we don't like it?"

There was laughter and scattered applause. Board chairman William Miller replied, "Under the present law, there is no provision for getting out. This opinion has been confirmed by the assistant commissioner of education."

Buckland Replies. Mr. Turner quoted a recent statement by Mr. Rohrer, "All of the major objectives of the Township, the Borough already has. What about that?"

John A. Buckland of the board stated, "Regionalization has the backing of both school superintendents. We are convinced of the educational advantages of merger. The junior high school would be better off than the new school would be left out of the township."

There were gasps of disbelief from some of the residents. "If a child in the Borough junior high gets into a low section, even though he may be bright in one or two subjects, he doesn't get out."

We have too few children in the Borough junior high to schedule separately. The Township gets superior results. He noted that it would cost $80,000 a year to add efficient teachers to the Borough junior high.

"You talk about numbers and if you don't have enough, you can't have a good program," said one woman. "According to what you say about the merger of the two boards, there will be a decreased percentage of vocational students."

Dr. Harvey D. Rothberg of the board told her, "Vocational facilities will be expanded within the next year, just after the merger or so." He added, "The Princeton Plan isn't being expanded, either. It is being expanded." There was a flutter of applause and laughter.

gradually regionalize, using the new building for kinder-gartens through 8th grade for a few years."

Mr. Turner, opening the report of the Borough and Township boards to page 45, asked for clarification of costs. "In event of regionalization," Mr. Turner said, "the current operating expenses would be taken into consideration in proportion to the number of pupils." The cost based on daily enrollment, would cause no significant change in the school tax rates in either Borough or Township.

"I think," said one woman on the question of busing Negro children to the various schools "that we are asking the Negro people of this community to make a sacrifice that we would not want to make ourselves."

The busing program has been arranged to take care of both Negro and white children," board member Thomas Moore told her. "But there is further consideration," she said. "If the mother works and the child is sick at school, he can't just walk home."

"Let's Join Hands." "That too can be arranged for," Mr. Moore said. "Most people seem to take the position that if you are a Borough, resident, you are going to give some thing up. But it is a case of joining hands with the Township for a better, overall system. It is true that the John Witherspoon School would give the best education kindergarten through 8th grade, but let's spread it around."

Mrs. Speers, who noted that she plans to vote for regionalization inquired about the timetable for the interior work of the new school. "It would be unethical to begin work to change it to a junior high school, even from the start of a meeting such as tonight, before the referendum in October."

Mr. Rohrer stated that the classrooms, gymnasium, cafeteria all fit into the approved plans for junior high schools. "The school would be a combination of laboratories and major items, involving a relatively small amount of money."

Mrs. Murray Devine of 27 Leavitt Lane, a teacher at Leavitt School, asked what would be the future of Princeton High School if the Township built its own high school.

Dr. Stroup Comments. "It seems to me," said School Superintendent Chester Stroup, "that you have touched upon me. Number one reason for moving, I do not see how it will be economically possible for the Township to maintain the high school in 1975 if the Township pulls out."

"Montgomery Township will have gone, and Hopewell Borough, West Windsor is presently working with its own planning board for a site in the event they find necessary or desirable to build their own high school. Plainsboro may be with us, but I have heard there have been discussions in Rocky Hill."

"I want to speak for a minute as a board member," said Mr. Bohrer. "The reason Montgomery Township and West Windsor are not out of our high school is because they want to stay. As long as we supply bargain education at the bargain price we pay, I don't think they'll leave."

He cited population figures for the high school for 1970: 71 — "straight line projections more recent than the figures in the Blue Book. Assuming that we have West Windsor, Rocky Hill, Plainsboro, Princeton Borough and some of St. Paul's graduates, the high school population would be 1,136. It says 921 in the Blue Book." The projection showed populations of 1,247 in 1971-73, 1,322 in 1972-73.

"The high school worked its best at the 1972-73 population, which is the same we had in 1957-58. We have the maximum teacher-student relationships. (Applause.)"

Let's Be Practical! "Just let's be practical about 1975," insisted Mrs. Sarah Strayer, had vice-president. "If we board these same population figures, we would face this problem of regionalization once more. Do you want to go through this again?"

There was several laughter. Then Mrs. H. W. Leverett of 35 Westcott Avenue, Princeton PTA president, stated, "I have had children in the school system for 19 years and one child graduated nine years ago and I have two in the high school now. I have seen a great improvement."

"Is it possible," Theodore D. Vreeland of 17 Alken Avenue, wanted to know, "to compare the difference between the two school systems?"

"I would say," hazarded Professor Robert A. Lively of the board, "that the Borough has a slight edge in English and languages, while the Township has an edge in mathematics and science. But with students from its outlying areas, the range is very great."

Mrs. Robert Cawley of 228 Western Way said the discussion turned to Township withdrawal. "I am sobered by the prospect of the loss for the Borough children if the Township pulls out. We have work together."

A Few Final Thoughts. The meeting closed promptly at 10:30 as planned, dissolving into discussion groups in the hall and on the sidewalks.

"How is the Township going to pay for a new high school?" one man asked another. "We are they going to get the money?"

"Is the Township bluffing?" a woman asked another. "No," she was told. "But there are some Township board members determined to merge the school."

McKenna (Township and school superintendent) himself said at Littlebrook School that it would take 20 years to pay for it.

Another voice, "What we need are three boards of education, one for the high school — regionalize."

"All this talk about regionalization — who's minding the store?"

LAPLACA WINS
Can Build Apartments
Charles LaPlaca won a summary judgment against the Borough in Superior Court Friday and now he can build 40 apartment units on the three acres of land he owns next to the Borough's proposed elderly housing project on North Harrison Street.

In another legal battle, Mr. LaPlaca is seeking to prevent condemnation of that same housing project parcel. He owns it and has refused to sell it to the Princeton Housing Authority Counsel for the Authority has instituted condemnation proceedings.

When Mr. LaPlaca decided to build apartments on the land he owns next to what the Housing Authority wants, he went before the Borough Zoning Board for a variance. Apartments are not a "permitted use" in the area.

The Board granted his variance, as it had the Housing Authority's variance, but Borough Council, on June 19, 1964, rejected the zoning recommendation and told Mr. LaPlaca he could not build.

Must Have Facts. Judge George H. Barlow of Superior Court said in his decision that there simply weren't any facts in the record to justify Council's refusal.

"While it is true that the Mayor and Council may properly reach different conclusions from those reached by the Zoning Board, they may do so only when the record reasonably admits of a difference of opinion. Where, as here, the record compels only one conclusion, the governing body may not ignore the record and arbitrarily reach the relief sought."

Mayor Henry S. Patterson, commenting on the decision, said that he and Hugh D. Wise, special Borough counsel in the case, are disturbed about precedent.

"We're concerned that the FIVE BABY RABBITS made a return visit to the Littlebrook School Monday where they were found in the grass last Thursday by a group of second graders. Now about 16 days old, Flopper, Mopet, Cottonball, Peter and Jumper have been cared for around the clock by Mrs. William MacMichael of 99 Poe Road. Above (from left) are Kendall Price, Jane Martin, Mrs. MacMichael and Wendy Peterson. (Staff Photo)

Judge is really saying, "You must have a case," a transcript, almost," Mayor Patterson said. "This means that the Borough might have to become an adversary in every zoning case, so that a complete legal and factual record would be on hand if the matter goes to court, even if somebody just wanted to build a export."

As it is now, Mr. Wise observed, the municipality is not an adversary. "A board or Council listens, considers the facts and makes a decision. There is usually no compilation of evidence to spell out precisely why, legally and factually, the governing body says 'No.'"

The Borough has 45 days in which to file an appeal. So far, no decision about appeal has been made.

"BRADLEY COURT"
Residents Ask Change, Bill Bradley may receive a grade.

ation present from Princeton Township. Twelve of the 15 residents of Gullick Road have petitioned Township Committee to change the name of their street to "Bradley Court" in honor of the young basketball star and they hope the change can be made before he graduates next month.

Committee heard the petition Monday night without flickering an eye. Although Mayor Carl C. Schaefer did say, "It's an unusual request..." Committee took the matter under advisement, but had so much to do in executive session that Bradley Court is still waiting for the starting whistle.

Kenneth S. Weikman, 82 Gullick Road, sponsored the petition. Other signers are Richard Griggs, Leland Merrill Jr., Charles W. McKee, Frederick A. Cook, Barbara S. Geiseler, Mr. and Mrs. William Herbold, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Milton, Thomas L. Brophy, Pearce T. Rayner, Herbert L. Rosenthal and Gerald A. Speedy.

Who Pays. Nobody likes to pay for things like new sewers and newly-paved streets. Except, presumably, two residents of Race Street, Alfred Korwey, 31 Race, and H. Arthur Douglas Jr., 30 Race, were each assessed about $500 for the $1,623 Race Street sewer. Neither showed up Monday night to protest, and Committee accepted the assessors' report in less than a minute.

But Princeton University, Dean Mathey, Abbot Low Mott and Mrs. Robert V. Dillay all appeared before Committee to protest their assessed share of paying a segment of Pretty Brook Road.

The gist of their lengthy arguments heavily buttressed with legal citations:

● The properties do not benefit from the paving, in fact, Frank Reiche, representing Mr. Mathey and the University, joint owners of one parcel, said that the University would never sell it at a higher price after paving.

REMEDY FOR GULICK: From the belief that the Bill Bradley era in Princeton should not come to an end with his graduation next month, but should be perpetuated for future generations, a dozen residents of Gulick Road this week petitioned Township Committee to change the name of their street to "Bradley Court." (See Topics of the town.)

Meantime, his classmates on campus were paying him the ultimate tribute: firmest proof that none of his acrobatic dream of accolades directed his way had in any sense increased the size of his hand. It came with the 1965 Class Poll, which cited Bill Bradley as "Most Popular," "Most Respected" and "Most Likely to Succeed."

TREND OF THE TIMES: Inevitably, the Class Poll is a reflection of current campus terminology. The Class of '65's predecessors 30 years ago voted one of their number "Tascodent," and the tradition remains today, but 1935 never conceived of tagging one of its members as "Gruntzint," which, freely translated, is "Most Un-Twentyed."

Other inter-day tag-lines "Most Confused by Women," "Most Gun-Ho," "Tightest Bird Dog" and "Straightest Arrow," this last presumably the designation for one who never weaves from the straight and narrow. Apparently some who once enjoyed such a reputation do, however, and for them there is also a slot — obviously, "Ex-Straightest Arrow."

HUMAN SKYSCRAPERS: The Trenton Clown Club, long a favorite at the Hospital Fete, will return with its act this year, but would like to round it out. If you're any good on little — the bigger, the better — call Walt "Wofo" Savage, Chief Clown, at 685-6222.

A LOOK INSIDE: "Wonderful Town" was a 15-minute show, TOWN TOPICS' critic Katharine Bretnall reports in News of the Times, which also tells what happens to the youngest members of the Princeton Ballet Society when "Sleeping Beauty" is revived after an eight-year lapse (pages 5-B). . . a look at end-of-the-season art exhibits is provided on page 20, and a run-down on more of the concerts booked for next year is provided in Music in Princeton, Page 24.

Princeton's giant stride toward another Ivy title in lacrosse is detailed in the sports section, as are the numerous achievements of the high school's fine track team. . . Little League Football is scheduled to make its Princeton debut in the fall . . . pages 31-36.

Three letters expressing appreciation on various counts are addressed to Mailbox (page 17). . . a sizable tract of land has changed ownership and is earmarked for immediate residential development. "Business" in Princeton, page 25. . . vandalism and theft continue to find their way into police reports, some of the crime traceable to boys not yet in their teens.

LOGICAL MOVE: When Mrs. Marie H. Katzenbach of Princeton resigned last winter after many years of service on the State Board of Education, it was logical that another Princeton woman be named to succeed her.

This week, Gov. Richard J. Hughes announced his choice: Mrs. Marion G. Epstein of 7 Little Brook Road, vice-president of the Township Board of Education and long a guiding light in its affairs, was immediately approved by the Senate Judiciary Committee.

HOW DRY WE ARE: The makings of a drought are at hand again, partially because the spring season has not produced normal rainfall to date. Despite all those damp chill days, but even more so because this is a continuation of a trend that is now measured in years. In some sections of the east, precipitation has been seriously below average since 1961.

Last week was a good example: just 22 inches of rain, with the result that with the month now about two-thirds gone, less than a third of what we need has fallen. Temperature ranges, meanwhile, are about ideal: lows around 45 to 50, highs in the mid 70s to low 80s.

Linger Awhile

Hang on tight
To lovely May!
In one more week
She'll slip away.

Nat that June will be unwelcome, but May just could be the loveliest month of the year around here. After even the briefest look at the countryside, it's hard to let it go.

Nice as it is, it's been too dry, and that will continue for a while longer. Showers are a possibility along a bout Friday, but there is no real rain in sight.

THE COLOR DIED OUT: New Jersey automobile drivers whose licenses expire are no longer asked to give the color of their hair, marking an end to a means of identification that is almost as old as the horseless carriage itself.

The reason? For the first time, a woman (Miss June Striecker) is head of the State's Motor Vehicle Department, and without being easily abashed, she reports that so many of her sex change the color of their hair so often that the question on the license is virtually meaningless.

Today's brunettes is tomorrow's redhead — and possibly next month's blonde, the Motor Vehicle Department finds. Accordingly, New Jersey has become the sixth state to grant women the prerogative of dyeing their hair without having to report the change when their license comes up for renewal.

EDUCATION

Your children deserve the benefits of a higher education. In today's world they may be penalized by not having the opportunity.

If you count on their ability to win a scholarship, it might be surprising to know that only 1 out of 5 students secures a scholarship and the average benefit is less than $300, a year. College and university costs are many times that amount.

Right now is the time to shape a savings program to pay the costs of advanced education for your children. A program based on average college and university costs starts right here at your personal service bank. All you need do is ask one of our service officers to outline a workable savings program for you. Walk right in today and ask for this free planning assistance.

SECRET AGENT 907 holds forth this week in two Jan Fleming stories, "From Russia With Love" and "Dr. No," the double bill at both the Playhouse and Prince Theatres. Above in a "From Russia" scene, Sean Connery as James Bond protects the inevitable beauty, Daniela Bianchi.

of spies and counterespies authored by Ian Fleming and directed by Sean Connery at James Bond.

In "Dr. No," James Bond arrives in Jamaica to investigate the murder of a British agent. He falls into a network of evil, masterminded by the brilliant Chinese scientist, Dr. No. There is a kidnapping, a cliff-side car crash, and a hair-raising escape in a speedboat with Ursula Andress, all in Technicolor. Bond deliberately walks into a trap baited by Soviet agent Daniela Bianchi in "From Russia With Love." He's out to get the secret Russian decoder. His fantastic adventures, played tongue-in-cheek, are spiced with intricate traps and fabulously beautiful women.

GARDEN

Nothing But a Man (now playing) is an eloquent statement against race prejudice. The settings are simple, haunting re-creations of the world of the Southern belle. The camera invades the run-down barn, the respectable, middle-class homes, and the squelched ghetto.

Primarily, it is a love story, recounting the romance of the preacher's daughter and a restless devil may-care railroad section hand who comes to her small town for what he expects will be a few weeks. Before he knows what has hit him, he is in love, getting married and settling down.

It isn't easy, for the hero, played by Ivan Dixon, is a proud man. He is contemptuous of his father-in-law's "Uncle Tom" attitude toward the whites. His desire to encourage other Negroes to speak out leads him into difficulties. Abbey Lincoln plays the role of the young wife who has committed herself to staying in the town and working to better conditions there for her people. The film abounds with little insights which, when told little, create good drama.

HOW TIME FLIES!

Young Dancers Grow. Back in 1957, when the Princeton Ballet Society last presented "The Sleeping Beauty," three very young dancers were ladies of the chorus. Now, with "The Sleeping Beauty" ready once again for performance (McCarte, May 28 and 29), these three will be seen in leading roles. Dabby Bishop was a very small Fairy Page and a Snow Flake in 1957. This year, she will dance Carabosse, the Evil Fairy whose curse sends the Princess Aurora into her deep sleep.

Linda Hart, a little butterfly in 1957, will dance one of the solo fairy roles in this new production and Margery Burt who was a Blue Bird eight years ago, has been transformed into a leading part in the current "Sleeping Beauty."

Other young performers in the 1957 presentation have gone on to professional dance careers. Elaine Coffee, who danced Princess Aurora herself, was a dancer on Broadway in "No Strings," and is now with the national company of "How to Succeed in the Business World." She also traveled with the national company of "My Fair Lady."

Carol Estey, whose parents direct the Princeton Ballet Society, will be featured in "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum," scheduled to open later in May at the Paper Mill Playhouse. Previously she danced in

THIS IS A DOUBLE BED: It may not look like it, but such is the case. Convertible couches at the Castro show-room in Trenton tend to look exactly like sofas and not at all like the beds they can become when you arrive for the double, three-quarter or full king size beds for six-footers on your guest list. are all available at the Trenton store.

Palm Beach
at
Harry Ballou's
20 Nassau Street

IT'S NEW To Us

WELCOME YOUR GUESTS
They Can Stay All Week.
Next time unexpected guests show up, all you have to do—as they they say in the commercials—is to unveil the Castro Convertible and send them off to a comfortable bed.

We ought to say right now that the kind of Castro Convertible we mean is the kind you sleep in, because Castro also makes convertible tables and reclining lounge chairs and table lamps. (Sure, a table lamp converts on and off.)

Castro's show-room is in Trenton at 1243 North Olden Avenue Extension—easy to reach from Princeton, as you know.

The variety in this store is astonishing. The company makes more than 100 different styles in convertible furniture, including six different Italian provincial pieces, and an extraordinary number of early American designs.

These Early American ones struck our fancy particularly, and we think they'll appeal to you, too. The "Amber" for example, is the trimmest love-seat you could imagine: wonderful for a guest-room study or a small living-room. It's a wing design, but the wings are cut back somewhat to give a neater line to this small piece. Open it up, and the "Amber" is a complete single bed.

If you need more sleeping accommodations, the "Amber" sectional, in two or three pieces, is just for you. One of the sections can open up to a three-quarter bed or a full king size, depending on your choice. Then comes the curving, corner part of the couch, and then a second "bed," if you need a lot of dormitory space.

The "Dolly Madison" is an Early American wing couch, 74 inches long, with two seat cushions and a tufted back. If your living-room is really spacious, you'll want the 90-inch winged Longline with its diamond-tufted back and two cushions.

The "Valley Forge" has sturdy maple arms and frame with a single back cushion and two tapered ones to sit on.

All these Early American styles have matching chairs.

WHEN THEY'RE IN THE WATER MAKE SURE THIS IS THERE TOO!

Sylvan Pool Treat dissolves instantly in swimming pool water to kill bacteria, can be used just before swimming, never leaves a color or odor, doesn't irritate eyes or skin, is harmless to pool finish and equipment, and comes in breakproof containers. So do many other pool chemicals.

SUR: Sylvan Pool Treat is lithium base chlorine, doesn't leave a chalky residue that other calcium base chlorines leave. That's what makes it the most important thing you add in your pool. Besides yourself.

WIDE-AWAKE BEAUTIES: The youngest members of "The Sleeping Beauty" cast display as much poise and grace as their elders, as they pose between rehearsals on the steps of the Ballet Society studio. Student dancers affiliated with the Society will dance Tchaikovsky's ballet in McCarter on May 22 and 23. The ballet was given by the Society back in 1957, and who knows—maybe the next time around one of these fledglings will be The Sleeping Beauty herself.

"Golden Boy" and in the national company of "Little Me." She was the White Bird in the 1937 "Sleeping Beauty." Kathleen Hall, a Snowflake in 1927, is now studying at the Metropolitan School of Ballet in New York. She returned to Princeton for a featured solo role in the Princeton Regional Ballet's "Les Sylphides."

This year's "Sleeping Beauty" will be given at 8:30 on Friday, May 29 and at 2:30 on Saturday, May 28.

DANCING ON THE LAWN

Ballet Benefits. The dancers of the Princeton Regional Ballet will dance in the garden of the Princeton Inn Sunday at 4:30 in a "dawn" planned for the benefit of the Regional Ballet.

Mrs. John Roberts is chairman of a sponsoring committee consisting of Mesdames Thorne Lord, C. Reinold, R. S. Pierpont, C. M. Schuler, Stanton Waterman and Roger Wilcock. Wendell Estey, George C. Ford, Althea T. Mason, Roger Meyer and H. C. Starbuck are also on the committee.

"KISMET" COMING
To Lambertville, After "The King and I" completes its May 29-June 6 run, the Lambertville Music Circus will unveil its production of "Kismet," the musical whose tunes were adapted from the music of Borodin.

Songs like "Stranger in Paradise," "Fate," "This Is My Beloved" and "The Olive Tree" will be remembered by those who saw the show on Broadway, where it ran for two seasons.

In Lambertville, "Kismet" will play from June 8 to June 13 to be followed on June 15 by "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum," a newswoman to the Lambertville Spectator, which will be on view through the Fourth of July.

But don't leave after the Fourth, because the week of July 6-11 will be devoted to "Bye, Bye Birdie" and July 12 through July 18 will be "The Sound of Music." Last year, "The Sound of Music" was a record-breaker, held for two weeks of sellout business and brought back for an additional week at the end of the season.

Theatre parties for the season are now being booked by the big tent, and information may be obtained by writing The Music Circus, Lambertville, N. J. or calling 397-1509.

ACROSS THE RIVER

And Into Bucks County, "Mary, Mary" will continue to occupy audiences at the Bucks County Playhouse, New Hope, through Saturday, May 29, with Shari Lewis of television reason starring in Jean Kerr's comedy.

After "Mary, Mary" the New Hope theatre will present "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?" Edward Albert's controversial play that won the New York Drama Critics Circle Award as the best play of the 1962-63 season. It will open on May 31 and will run through June 12.

Colleen Dewhurst and James Daly will co-star in the Albee play and Rebecca Darke and Dan Travanty will round out the cast of four as the young couple, Honey and Nick.

Miss Dewhurst will be remembered by Playhouse audiences for "Witness for the Prosecution" and "A View from the Bridge." Mr. Daly has appeared on the New Hope stage in "The Advocate" and "Jenny Kissed Me."

It's My Own!

The pleasure of creating as well as exhibiting a piece of handwork is almost palpably evident in a group of hand hooked rugs now on view in a Palmer Square window of Clayton's.

The little rugs were designed and made by eight Princeton women who spent the winter months in a class given by Ann Wiseman Deen.

The women searched out all the wooden fabric they could find—bits from mill-ends scraps, scraps from sewing baskets, pieces from the Salvation Army. Choosing their own blending colors and working out their own designs, they traced out their patterns on the backing. Then they cut the wool fabric into thin strips and gradually brought their design to life using a standard hand hook.

Women whose work is on display are Joan Gaylord, Thelma Hummel, Linda Osborne, Susan Levine, Phyllis Styco, Charlotte Bradley, Ruth Ann Willard and Betty Gubila.

Mrs. Danzer will start an exhibit in the fall. Information may be obtained from her at 924-0200.

summer comfort! It's a sandal with bars between the sole and the encircling strap. Come in a pair of orange, or gold and orange.

Sandler eschews anything so theatrical and offers its fans two sandals, one with an "X" across the instep, another with a "Y" each lined with a soft rope that overhangs and makes a picturesque frame for the dark leather of the strap.

For town (depending on which town, naturally) you'll pick that Cora spectator with a soft maple heel. If you've given up spectators because you're tired of trying to keep white shoe polish off the navy or brown, Cora is for you. It's that soft stuff, you know, and you just wipe it clean with a damp cloth, as though it were a kitchen counter, $14.99, by Airstep.

Your children, assuming you can get them to wear shoes at all, are probably going to live in Hulla's all-leather sandal, the one with the extra support in the arch.

IT'S FUN TO BE CREWEL. Give 'em the Needle. Crewel requires to fascinate the lady who's nibble with the needle, and The Knitting Shop on Tulane suspects that this very lady will enjoy her summer making a crewel thistle on a burp pillow.

This is a real thistle, too, with shaggy petals hanging loose. Its friend, the sunflower, also has a dangling head of yarn, and has the fan-shaped red flower whose name escapes us at the moment. Anyhow, all these flowers have loose-hanging yarn to give the effect of real, shaggy felt and petal forms. A rope and encircles the pillow, just so you'll know its burp and casual.

In a more formal vein, you can do the crewel work in a pair of pictures, each with its own walnut frame. Fruit is the subject, overhanging from a compote. A fish, a stylized jaguar or a cat are all in the crewel frame collection.

Perhaps you'll like something to identify you as a crewel expert. Take home The Knitting Shop's burp tote bag that loops over your arm and can stand upright when you set it down. You can work a tree of life or a butterfly-flower design. Afterward, you insert the lining and the zipper and there you are!

Another Knitting Shop bag is actually a basket (three sizes). You line it with the quilted chintz that comes with the kit. Then you take the wide black velvet ribbon and run it, in a row, from all around the basket, ending with a bow. Using gold wire yarn, you make your initials in gross-point and fasten the initiated about to the outside of the basket.

the Township is agreeing to pay $1,000 of the $20,000 cost." And he added that the assessors had already reduced some of the levies after the usual property owners' hearing before the board. Mr.
Smith did say that Mr. Wolf-fate's bill had been reduced from $1,400 to $1,000.

Good Old Days. Henry J.
Frank, 125 Valley Road, observed from the floor that things were different in the 30's. "In those days, a town the size of the Township received more state aid than today and, besides, the county contributed road materials."

Joseph H. Nint, Township administrator, said that two Pretty Brook parvies, in 1929 and 1931, had been assessed to property owners.

"I should think that a man who buys property on an unpaved street would expect to be assessed eventually for paving."
William L. Wilson, "and paying adds to value."

Mr. Wilson moved that the Township agree to pay for two-thirds of the job instead of one-third, but nobody seconded his motion and he withdrew it.

"I'd like to decide this right now," commented Mayor
Schafer after a motion to table had been made, but he was out-voted, 4-1, and the matter was set aside for discussion.

Now, Sewers. Things started all over again when assessments for Part of The Great Road sewer came before Committee. "Tenacre," assessed about $20,000 for the $20,819 sewer, said that it had its own satisfactory sewer treatment plant, so efficient that its effluent was "like a babbling brook" for cleanliness and purity.

"It's only fairly useable," replied Township engineer
Frank Quinby. "You get odor problems in the summer."

The "Tenacre" representative also stated that a future threatened the institution with even more assessments, and he compared the "Tenacre" levy with the Sacred Heart levy which he called "anomalous."

At this, Albridge C. Smith, representing Sacred Heart as well as Mr. Moffat, retorted that the school was giving free access for The Great Road re-assignment. "Tenacre" assessments for this reassignment are still being negotiated, and had meant $100,000 on a main trunk sewer.

Sacred Heart, like the University, is a commercial developer as well as a school, and several lots near the school property are being sold for homes.

In the end, the Great Road sewer went back to the assessors' survey, because one property owner had neglected to tell the assessing board that he was already hooked into a sewer.

"Speaking as a taxpayer," said Mr. Frank again, "all this talk of 'no benefit' just means that the Township picks up the tab and that means a higher tax rate."

Mayor Schafer assured him that the Township had no intention of picking up the whole tab.

In other business, Committee adopted a resolution insuring "no discrimination" in the use of Federally-financed "Open Space" land, specifically the Harrop property, appointed Mrs. Henry Frank to the Mercer County Prosecutor's Committee on Clean Legislation, refused to reduce the Brookstone Part B bond because work remains to be done

MAN OF THE WEEK: "For giving to Princeton the devotion and concern which he feels are due of the better we all love," Mayor Patterson is on the cover of the week's TOWNSHIP TOPICS.

In the area, passed an ordinance providing $3,000 for a feasibility study of the Harrop property and an ordinance amending the subdivision ordinance to provide a steep increase in the fees a developer must pay to lay his plans before the Planning Board. "A simple reversal of costs, not revenue," said Gordon Griffin, Township attorney.

Public hearing on all ordinances on June 7.

WOMAN HURT IN CRASH: Condition Still Critical. The condition of a 57-year-old Township widow was still listed as "critical" Tuesday by Princeton Hospital, some 20 hours after her car left the roadway on Mt. Lucas Road near Poor Farm Road. Township police, who were unable to question the victim because of the seriousness of her injuries, said there were no witnesses to the mishap.

When Patrolman Michael Koplin arrived at the scene Monday evening at 6, he reported seeing a Jeep a car's shoulder of the road, up an embankment and lying backwards. The driver, Mrs. Ann L. Porter of Cherry Valley Road, was lying partially in the car and partially on the roadway.

Mrs. Porter was unconscious and breathing heavily, according to Pil Koplin. She was delivered surgery Tuesday morning for treatment of severe head injuries. There was no visible damage to the Jeep, police said, who added they found no tire or skid marks.

Thursday afternoon at 3:22, an 11-year-old bicyclist received a concussion and broken shoulder when she ran into a sedan, into a car at the intersection of Terhune Road and Grover Avenue. Mrs. Florence Marston, 48, 36 Marion Road, was the car's driver.

According to the police report, Mrs. Marston, driving on Terhune, had just entered the intersection when a Kathleen Brodsky, 11, riding on Grover, hit her car on the right side.

One woman said she got too close perhaps five to 10 feet in the air. She landed on the hood of the car and soon fell to the roadway.

Kathleen was taken to Princeton First Aid and Rescue squad. Police made no charges.

Outmaneuvered: Last Wednesday morning a Trenton motorist required 15 minutes to force his way to close a gash he received in a two-car accident on Mercer Road's Stony Brook Bridge.

The entire front end of Edward B. Accosta's 1965 sports car was damaged when he ran into the rear of a stopped car operated by Mrs. Gerald Adger, 28, also of Trenton. Mr. Accosta, 47, told Township Police that he was driving in the opposite direction when he maneuvered that apparently Mrs. Adger's car. Adger's car was stopped on the bridge. He was unable to stop in time, he said. There were no charges.

Rain and the addition of a finely ground stone surface to Rosedale Road combined to trigger two related accidents which occurred a few minutes apart late Monday morning.

As he rounded a curve near General Robert Johnson's driveway, John Pirone, 40, 22 Hillside Road, told police he hit a slippery spot, causing his car to spin across the roadway and come to rest against an embankment. While he was awaiting assistance, a car came over the crest of the hill, braked, and skidded into his car, Pirone continued.

The second driver, E. A. Phillips, 67 W. Broad Street, Hopewell, reported he saw the disabled car and Mr. Pirone waving a flashlight but when he applied his brakes his car went into a skid. Neither driver was injured.

Township police added that the upper section of Rosedale had been graded a week and covered with a quarry-dust-like material. When it rains, as it was at the time of the accident, the surface of the road becomes slippery as glass.

"We were lucky this time — there were no injuries. The next time we may not be so lucky," said Chief James B. Campbell, Jr.

Memorial Mass at 10 a.m. on Friday will be attended by the boys and girls of St. Paul's and special assemblies will be held at 9 and 10 a.m. so that students at Princeton High School may hear Dr. William L. Tucker.

Service will be held at 8 a.m. on Memorial Day at Princeton Cemetery by members of Princeton Post No. 218, American Legion, with Captain El Dennis Gray of the R.O.T.C. at Princeton University, as speaker. Post Commander George Holmes and Wallace Holland Jr., will assist the firing squad and the bugler in the memorial wreath laying.

At 9:30 in St. Paul's Cemetery, Princeton Post No. 78 firing squad will perform during Memorial Mass. The squad's commander is Clinton Grover. Robert Schmidt will play taps. Memorial Day ceremonies have been planned by Wallace Holland Jr., Dr. Dennis Richards and Donald W. Griffin.

THREE CARS VANDALIZED
Friday Night Three cars, all parked at the rear of Prospect Avenue eating club, were damaged Friday night by vandals. Sgt. Carl Lockhart of Hall, Princeton University, told police the radio antenna had been broken off and obscure words scratched with a sharp instrument on the hood and side of his car as it was parked behind Dial Lodge. A second car, belonging to a guest at Dial, had one of its doors ripped off, antenna and directional light lever mangled and air cleaner damaged.

A 1958 convertible sports car owned by Robert S. Clarke of Cuyler Hall, Princeton University, received a going over while it was parked behind the Ivy Club. Taken were the car's entire windshield, a metal frame for the convertible top and a tonneau cover. The car's antenna and license plate light were also smashed.

Detective Arthur Gallant of the Borough police is investigating.

GOOD HUMBRED TRY FAILS
To steal Good Humor Truck. A funny thing happened to John George of Trenton as he was selling ice cream from the rear of his Good Humor truck on Wednesday, Princeton University Prospect Avenue Campus Club: someone tried to steal his truck. Mr. Nangle fell as he tried to grab on to the moving truck, cutting his eye, elbow and chin. He was treated at the University infirmary where he was taken by students who witnessed the incident.

Borough police responded to a call at 9:25 p.m. from the infirmary. The student, Jessie James, after driving a short distance, stopped the truck, jumped out and made good his escape.

APARTMENT ENTERED

On Patton Avenue. A second door apartment located at 51 Patton Avenue was entered between 8:30 and 12:30 p.m. last Wednesday by a thief who escaped with $80.00 in cash and a $35 35mm camera. Borough police said a strip of molding had been pried loose to gain entry through the front door.

Several drawers and the bedroom were ransacked, police said, identifying the occupant as C. Sudasny. Detective Robert B. McAvonia is continuing the investigation.

THREE BOYS CONFESS

To Smashing Meters. Three Princeton juveniles, ages 12, 11, and 10, have admitted to smashing the mechanism of one meter in the Witherspoon parking yard and to taking the head of a second meter from the Chambers Street lot. They were scheduled to appear this week before referee Howard W. Siepp.

P.J. Russell H. Shangle was responsible for their undoing. Thursday night, he noticed two youths crouching behind a parked car in the Witherspoon lot, one carrying a broken ash handle the other a piece of lead pipe. The following day when Borough police received a report of a smashed meter in the Witherspoon yard, P.J. Shangle rounded the pair up, and got them to admit breaking the meter.

The two then involved the brother of one and he admitted being involved in the theft of the meter-head from the Chambers Street yard.

"LONGDRIVE" TO SUE
Township Involved. Longdrive Builders, whose principals are Lewis Kraft and Stanley Fishaw, filed suit Wednesday in Superior Court against the Township Planning Board and Township Committee.

"Longdrive" plans a development of homes in the Herndon Road-Autumn Hill area. The Planning Board approved the plans, but told the builders they would have to pave a stretch of road which lies outside the development itself.

The contractors appealed this contingency to Township committee, but Committee upheld the Planning Board and so Longdrive decided to take the matter to court.

FOREIGN POLICY?

Forum to Discuss. Rabbi Everett Gendler of the Jewish Center will be a speaker at the forum on United States foreign policy to be presented Thursday, May 27 in Roosevelt, N.J. The forum will be held in the Community Center, Roosevelt Synagogue.

An active participant in civil rights activities, Rabbi Gendler is a member of the Fellowship of Reconciliation and the executive committee of the War Resisters League. He is also a contributor to the Fund for the Republic publication, "International Convocation on Paeon in Terms."

BUS IS STALLED

Hearings Next Week. The possibility of 32 buses shutting back and forth between Princeton and Hightstown along Washington Road remains in the air, even though Borough and Township are both against the whole idea.

JR. COLLEGE APPROVED

By State Board. A two-year community college has been approved for Mercer County by the State Board of Education. Plans call for construction of a 57 million college for 1,500 full-time and 3,000 part-time students, incorporating Trenton Junior College.

The board issued a report from the State Department of Education, which in turn had adopted most of the findings of a citizens survey group. The Mercer County Freeholders have accepted the matter will be put to public vote in November.

According to the Board of Education Report, Mercer County will have to float a $5 million bond issue to pay for its 50% share of construction. Annual debt service would run close to $300,000. Costs per student are estimated at $700, with county, state and students sharing the total. Dr. Frederick M. Raubinger, commissioner of education, told the board "Mercer County is in a particularly good position to establish a community college, because in Trenton Junior College, which does an excellent job, it already has a strong invitation." Trenton Junior has an enrollment of 534 full-time students, 400 industrial arts students and 50 part-time and evening students.

The Department of Education report also stated that in 1965-66 the enrollment potential will be 3,000 full-time and 6,000 part-time students, or double the capacity of the planned junior college.

ALUMNI HEADS NAMED

By Their College. Prof. James G. McKever has been appointed director of alumni affairs and church relations at Westminster Choir College. Mr. McKever has been responsible for directing church elections including the teaching of two professional courses for church music majors. In his new position, he will also be in charge of annual giving and alumni placement.

TO RE-ORGANIZE?

Council to Discuss Recommendations for revising the Council of Community Services will be presented at the Council's annual meeting Wednesday at 12:15 at the YMCA. These recommendations are the first to be relayed by the Citizens Survey Committee that has been examining various parts of the Princeton United Community Fund, including the Fund itself and the Council. The final report of the Survey Committee will not be published until fall.

George Adriansen, chairman of the sub-committee charged with surveying Fund and Council, will present the recommendations to the annual meeting. According to Mrs. Harold Sproul, Survey Director, the sub-committee will probably recommend broadening the Council's membership to include the entire United Fund area, and strengthening the Council as an autonomous planning agency.

The public is invited to attend the annual meeting, but reservations are necessary.

They may be made by calling the United Fund office, 924-3882 before noon Monday.

WANT TO WIN?

Drawing to be held. A school for the treatment and education of emotionally disturbed children will benefit from a drawing to be held June 18 at the school, 520 West State Street, Trenton.

Tickets, at 50¢ each, may be purchased this Saturday on the mall of the Princeton Shopping Center inside Ivy Manor, and on Saturday, June 5, at "Two Guys," Route 200, Bordentown.

First prize is $100 worth of electrical appliances, second prize is a silver tray and third prize is a transistor radio.

The school, established in 1963 by the Child Guidance Center of Mercer County, serves 15 boys and girls from various communities within the county, including Princeton.

Psychiatrists, teachers and social workers associated with the school have found that the disturbed children lose valuable ground when the school is closed during the summer months. This year, a summer program of continued education of emotionally disturbed children has been planned, to be financed in part with monies obtained from the sale of tickets for the drawing.

SWIFT TO RESIGN

As Guidance Director, Dr. Charles H. Swift will resign on September 1 as director of the Child Guidance Center of Mercer County. He has been with the Center for 12 years. No successor has been announced.

Dr. Swift will enter the graduate school of public health at Johns Hopkins University for intensive training in International Mental Health, particularly in the field of psychiatric problems arising from the rapid cultural shifts occurring in new African nations.

$2.5 MILLION GIVEN
To Aid University Library
 Princeton University has allocated a $2.5 million grant from William W. Smith for support of the school library.

Mr. Smith, a Pittsburgh lawyer, died last September at the age of 83 and donated the funds without restrictions as to their use. The grant was disclosed at the mid-winter alumni meeting in February.

The university will set aside $1.5 million to be held in an endowment and the income to be used for acquisitions and salaries. An equal amount will be added to the endowment and the income will replace allocations for the university's general funds. The remainder will be used for library construction projects currently planned or underway.

Dr. William S. Dix, the university librarian, said the funds for acquisitions and salaries will give special priority to the needs of the humanities. Before the Smith bequest, the library had a total endowment of about $3.5 at book value.

The funds will help meet the increased demands imposed by Princeton's continuing expansion, Dr. Dix said. The library has nearly two million volumes and is the largest open-stack research collection in the country.

He will be joined in Series I by Herman Frey, hitherto known for his interpretations of Lieder, and the mezzo-soprano Marilyn Horne. In addition, Series II will present the Guarneri String Quartet and the Netherlands Chamber Orchestra with Symphon Goldberg as violin soloist and conductor. The Netherlands group is particularly well-known for its Baroque repertoire.

Subscribers to Series I will hear Victoria de los Angeles, the Spanish soprano, the 12 instrumentalists of I Solisti Veneti, whose Princeton appearance will be their American debut; the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra under William Steinberg; John Opdan, the pianist and Shmuel Ashkenazi, violinist.

Subscriptions may be reserved by calling 924-0433 between 2 and 5 weekdays. May 31 is the deadline for the re-

Mrs. Stang lives at 70 Kendall Road, Kendall Park, with her husband and two children. She has been associated with the University Store since February, 1964.

The National Association of College Stores has 1403 members and 350 associate members. F. J. Worthington, general manager of the University Store, is a former president of the association.

By District Ford Dealers.

George W. Conover, president of Nassau-Conover Ford, Route 200, has been elected to the 1965 National Ford Dealer Council by the dealers in his district. He will serve as chairman for the southeastern region for two years, representing Ford dealers on the Atlantic coast from Pennsylvania to Florida.

HOME SALES BRISK

At Heathmede. Sales of 34 homes in a custom community being built by William Schmal of Heathmede have passed the half-way point.

Mr. Schmal said the success of the sales can be attributed largely to the location of the homes close to the shopping and commercial centers of Princeton yet in an atmosphere of country living. Four models of homes priced from $24,900 to $30,500 are being offered.

The most popular model is named the "Winthrop" and is of colonial design. Eight of the models have been sold. Heathmede is located four

If you think you don't need disability insurance, you haven't seen the statistics.

Of 1000 persons aged 35, 33% will be disabled by illness or injury—for three months or more—before they reach age 65. That's what the statistics show.

What kind of a statistic will you be?

It makes sense to look into a Manufacturers Life Personal Income Protector Plan. Nothing can give you such peace of mind as the sure knowledge that if you are disabled and cannot work, a guaranteed income will come your way.

Our Plan has many advantages. It offers you a wide flexibility in amount of income and the length of time it will be paid. For example, you may be able to arrange for income benefits right through to age 65 for total disability due to sickness or for life when an accident is the cause. Accidental death and dismemberment benefits to age 65 are also offered. You can co-ordinate the plan with your other resources; tailor it to your needs and your pocketbook. Manufacturers Life cannot cancel the policy nor can your premium rate be raised—ever. The plan can be adjusted to correct the inadequacy of any short-term coverage you already have.

If you are interested, call the Man from Manufacturers. When advising you on disability income he offers you the same competent counsel available to you when you are planning your life insurance security.

$2 million non-profit nursing care center near Princeton, N. J. offers unequalled care and comfort hospital-like features

The new $2 million Meadow Lakes Nursing Care Center in Hightstown, New Jersey—part of the magnificently landscaped Meadow Lakes Village retirement community—is now accepting resident nursing patients. This modern 90-bed Center provides—at reasonable cost—the most comprehensive nursing care available anywhere, combined with facilities and services usually associated only with hospitals.

carefully observed. There are convenient floor kitchens in each wing.

The Center is non-profit and sponsored and operated by The Presbyterian Homes of the Synod of New Jersey, Inc. It is entirely non-sectarian. Private rooms are $165 per week; semi-private rooms $125 per week.

There are no extra charges. The basic rate includes round-the-clock nursing care, meals, and the use of all medical facilities and services in the Center. Physicians and drugs are paid for by the patient, who may select his own physician, or use our staff members from the Princeton Medical Group.

Each spacious room is handsomely appointed and decorated and opens on landscaped courtyards and gardens. Every room has a lavatory, individually controlled heating and air-conditioning, private telephone, a direct patient-nurse Executive communications system, built-in dresser and ample closet space.

Beautiful public areas include 2 large solariums or day rooms and 2 patients' dining areas—all of which can also be used for TV and other social activities.

Patients may use the recreational and community services (barber and beauty shops, hobby and craft rooms, etc.) of Meadow Lakes Village.

Besides the most advanced, modern medical and nursing facilities, and beautiful surroundings—it is the environment of competent, sympathetic, personal care which makes the Meadow Lakes Nursing Care Center so unique. As one of our residents put it, "Here I am treated as a friend—not a patient."

Please visit, if convenient, or write for further details—without obligation.

POTTER AND WEAVER: Designer-craftsmen will display their skill Friday and Saturday on their pottery to be held at 207 Riverside Drive. Sally Kunstadter (left), well-known in Princeton for her pottery, and Lore Lindenfeld, equally renowned for her weaving, are two of the artisans whose work will be on display. Details in "Art in Princeton."

Helen Schwartz Exhibit. Currently at the YM-YWCA is a showing of paintings, drawings and etching sketches by Helen Schwartz Mrs. Schwartz of Princeton Junction, has studied with Emanuel Romano, Anthony Toney at the New School and with Gregorio Prestigiacchi.

She is a member of the Princeton Art Association and this year gave a lecture on drawing for the association's program. She teaches drawing at the "Y." One of her drawings was chosen for the New Jersey Tercentenary Exhibit.

Work being shown in this exhibition is predominantly of Still Life and Figure. The old work is done in a traditional manner and though her more recent work is what she describes as semi-abstract and more stylized, she feels that she has not left the figurative approach.

Dorley Morris, well-known landscape painter from Princeton, will show his paintings at the Marcel Bruyner Gallery in Greenwich, Conn., through May 29.

Exhibit at Kalen's. Gallery On the Square (Kalen's) is exhibiting paintings, watercolors and pastels by J. M. Rodgers throughout the month of May. While serving in the U.S. Air Force, from which he retired as Major, Mr. Rodgers painted and exhibited in Japan.

France and in this country from New Orleans, to Mystic, Conn. His watercolors are landscapes or street scenes, his portraits are in oils and pastel, notably of children in the latter medium; and he shows a painting called "After The Flight" which is reproduced in print form also. He now lives in Springfield Township and teaches Art Appreciation each week at Mitchell College in Connecticut.

Art Association Meets. The annual meeting of the Princeton Art Association was held last week at 202 Alexander Street. The 65 members present heard committee reports that described an active first-year program of workshops and exhibitions, with dues-paying members now totaling 543.

Mrs. Leon Nergard, treasurer, disclosed that a lease had been signed for new quarters at 14 Nassau Street which will be prepared for move-in by occupancy. The new quarters will provide a centrally located space for an expanded program of membership activities. New trustees elected were Charles McVicker, artist; Alfred Busselle, architect; Mrs. James Burise and Miss Margaret Bacon. Mrs. Kempton Hastings was re-elected to serve another three year term.

EXHIBIT AT HUN

of Oil and Pen Drawings. An exhibition of oil paintings and pen and wash drawings by Donald C. Gresson will be held at the Hun School, starting on Sunday and continuing through June 7. There is no charge for the exhibition, which will be on view in the school's Post Lounge.

Mr. Gresson has devoted his efforts to portraying the human figure in the near half-century he has studied art. His most recent works have centered around the symphony orchestra and college athletics. Recently he portrayed the Boston Symphony at Tanglewood, and in the last two years he executed a series on Harvard athletics, including crew, fencing, swimming and basketball.

During the 1920's, Mr. Gresson studied art in Paris. Since then he has been resident artist at Phillips Academy, Norfolk Art School of Yale University and professor of art at Rollins College. From 1924 to 1927, he ran his own gallery in New York City, before retiring, a dozen years ago, to his farm in Massachusetts, near the Vermont border.

He has held numerous one-man shows in colleges and prep schools throughout the east, and has exhibited at Paris, New York, Boston, Stamford, and at the Berkshire Museum, Pittsfield, Mass., the Boston Public Library and the Philadelphia Art Alliance.

Selig Weinberg, who has been blind for the past several years, owns and manages Trans Travel, Inc., at 1966 Springfield Avenue in Maplewood. In his business he needs use the telephone a great deal.

A true story about an original idea— combining Braille with a telephone

Until recently Selig Weinberg had trouble trying to remember the many, many business phone numbers that he calls frequently. It was a problem that he mentioned to Jack Slattery, one of our Customer Sales Representatives.

Slattery had an idea: combine Braille with the Card Dialer phone—the telephone that automatically dials a number when a punched card is inserted into a slot.

On special tape, Slattery punched out in Braille the names and addresses of the most frequently called numbers. Then he attached the tapes to the backs of the Card Dialer cards. It was a simple but ingenious solution.

These punched cards are now at Mr. Weinberg's fingertips—making it possible for him to telephone more conveniently. And many times the cards themselves serve as reminders to phone back or to try a busy number again.

Working out individual solutions to individual telephone problems is a big part of what we do at New Jersey Bell.

SPORTS In Princeton

SEASON NEARS AN END

Most Teams Finish Saturday.
A trip to Ithaca where it will be used to wrap up the Ivy title with Princeton's lacrosse team. The baseball and track teams will likewise complete the 1960 season for Princeton's lacrosse team. The turgue landscape above Cayuga's waters as the spring schedule nears an end about the same time the weather nears perfection.

Except for the ball team's few remaining games and the crew's participation in the national regatta at Syracuse on June 18, virtually all action will have ended by Saturday afternoon. The tennis team winds up with a trip to Dartmouth and Williams, the golfers finish this week with Navy and Rutgers. Regional and national intercollegiate remain, but the Tigers are unlikely to make an impression in them, as the basketball team did in March.

Another Title for Thomsen.
Few coaches anywhere have mastered the habit of winning as well as Ferris Thomsen, Princeton lacrosse coach. Successful the moment he hit the Princeton scene a decade and a half ago, he saw the first Ivy title get away from him the year the league became formal in 1896. He has never missed since.

The Tiger coach directed his teams to seven straight championships before becoming involved last spring in a three-way tie with Dartmouth and Harvard. The Crimson fell by the wayside early this season, and on Saturday, Thomsen took care of Dartmouth. Now, the Tigers are the only unbeaten team in the league, and have only last-place Cornell to defeat in their final game this weekend.

The Dartmouth game on Cornell Field, staged before an overflow crowd of 1,500, was a lacrosse oddity that is rarely duplicated to these days of open play. The 4-3 final for the Tigers was the lowest score recorded in Ivy action this season. In contrast, of the dozen games played in the tie the same day, only one winning team (Yale) also failed to score double figures, the Elis conquering Harvard, 9 to 3. Three teams which failed to win scored a dozen goals or better and there were a pair of action-packed, 13-all overtime ties. Solid play by both goalies (Graeme Flinders of Princeton and Brian Walsh, Dartmouth's sible to some degree for the scarcity of goals, but neither team shot frequently or accurately.

POINT-BLANK ATTACK:
Tino O'Brien (24) moves in on Dartmouth goalie Brian Walsh, although picking up some static from Indian midfielder Bill Wilkoff. O'Brien's goal at 11 minutes of opening period despatched the score at 1-1 in Saturday's game, and Tigers went on to win 4-3. (Randall Hagadorn Photo)

ately. Both attacking units felt the pressure of the title game and the defense had little trouble dominating action throughout the afternoon. Princeton outshot the Green, 37 to 28, with Flinders making 16 saves to 13 for Walsh.

Flinders had a momentary lapse 18 seconds after the game began, the Green scoring on a skip shot on which he was partially screened. Dartmouth's final goal came with 18 seconds left, so that for better than 50 minutes, the Tiger goalie allowed just one shot to find the target.

It took Princeton 11 minutes of the opening period to draw even, Tino O'Brien, high-scoring attackman, beating Walsh as he came in close from behind the cage. The Tigers then gradually took charge, holding a 2-1 lead at the half and adding a pair in the third period to raise their margin to 4-1 before the visitors narrowed the gap.

NINE HAS A CHANCE
But Only for a Tie. A tie that could involve as many as four teams is Princeton's lone chance of earning a share of the Eastern Baseball League title that has eluded it annually since 1953.

If the Tigers win from Cornell at Ithaca Saturday, the 12 points in the standings might be sufficient for a portion of first place with a combine with teams involving Army, Navy, Cornell and Dartmouth. As to hockey, standings are based on two points for a victory and one for a tie.

The "D" stands for Diesel . . . and for distance

It may be hard to believe that a car with the elegance and craftsmanship of the 190D could be so remarkably economical. But it's a fact. A very definite fact.

A 7,000 mile fuel consumption test by one of the country's leading petroleum marketers proved the 190D travels more than 30 miles per gallon. And Diesel fuel, available practically anywhere, costs about 40% less than gasoline.

Come on in and we'll give you more proof why the Mercedes-Benz 190D is the world's most economical full-size car.

Tom Scott, who had been given no runs at all at Hanover, returned to the mound Saturday on Clarke Field and fared better against Manhattan. His mates got him six runs, a number of them on seven misplays by the losers, and that just did stand up.

Working on three days of rest, Scott tired in the ninth. Marcott came on with the bases loaded and none out. Three runs scored and the tying mark was on third with two down when Marcott fanned the final batter to wrap up a 6-5 decision.

Tigers Blank March, it's long time since March, when John Redpath last started a game for Princeton, but the slim right-hander was overshadowed by Tom Scott's brilliant March 19 performance. Scott's batting average gotten how to pitch. Monday afternoon on Clarke Field, he blasted a momentum-boosting nine which came into the contest with a 1-3 record.

Scott is a 5-9, 140-pound baseman. Pete Riley providing most of the fireworks with a triple and a home run in the 182 batting average. The Tigers' pitcher, Tom Scott, is 19 for 14 bases as they give their mark for the spring to 16-6.

Riley's three-base blow covered 370 feet to right center and 100 feet to left field. The southpaw (he's the punting pitcher) is the football team's star, scoring on the field.

40 Year's Experience

FAITHFUL TO THE END: After one month of play, the current plight of the once-feared Yankees has not shaken the optimism of two of their followers, Glenn Johnson (right) and John Valentine. Both maintain the Yanks will right themselves and they wish sixth straight pennant. Results in the National League last John Valentine and Glenn firm in his support of the Dodgers. (Staff Photo)

Question of the Week

Question: After one month, have you changed your mind about who will finish first in the American and National Leagues?

Where asked: Around town.

John Valentine, 105 Dadds Lane, Princeton High sophomore: No, I'm still staying with the Yankees. Remember, they're playing without the best three players in the major leagues. When Mantle, Maris and Howard come back, I feel they'll mop up the rest of the league. I thought it was going to be the Cardinals in the National League but they seem to be floundering. I think I'd take the Reds now. It was a six-way race at the start but now it's between the Reds and the Dodgers and I don't think Koufax can carry the Dodgers the rest of the way. I would like to see the Yankees and the Reds in the series and—this is an answer to another question—I predict the Yanks will win it in four straight.

Glenn Johnson, 56 Greenhouse Drive, Princeton High junior: I still think the Yanks will win. It's true, they haven't done too well; in fact, they've come so far that I feel they have no place to go but up. When all their injured players return, I feel the team will gain incentive and a changing job the rest of the season with Johnny Keane in there. I think Keane has been hampered a little because it's his first year with the team but he did a good job with the Cards and he has a lot of material and I don't see why he can't pull out another pennant. I've always gone with the Dodgers. I think they're a solid team. I believe Drysdale and Koufax can provide the pitching. Their hitting may be a problem but, if I think they can clinch it.

Victor Sabary, Dutch Neck, self-employed: I'm a Yankee fan and although I picked them to finish first this year, I'm a little dubious about all the injuries and whether they'll make it now. Plus the only time they've never lost a pennant is when they win more games than they lose in the National League. I think the Yankees are still in first place because I picked them at the start of the season. They'll still win it even without hitting. When you got the pitching, you don't have to worry. Houston is still on Cloud 9.

Robert Ayars, 57 Jefferson Road, security guard: No, I still think the Yanks will finish first. They have been the top team for a long time; they've got what it takes to do it. I picked the Dodgers to win from the beginning but it's a possibility. Koufax might come up and take it. I'd really like to see the Mets win just because they've been the underdog for so long.

Robert Clark, 52 Birch Avenue, parking attendant: I pick Baltimore to win in the American League now. The Yankees have been hurt by injuries. Their pitching has been slow to start this year. I think now,

From an article on the seas we learned of another one of Nature's doses. The coldest water found in the deep areas of the Atlantic (other than at the poles) is found directly under the equator, hottest area on earth. An underwater stream of Antarctic water flows north and at that point passes over the Middle Atlantic Ridge. In the depth of the ocean there is perpetual darkness, to which Nature seems to have adapted the creatures which live there. Many give off their own light; their luminous organs reaching a very high complexity, with reflective layers behind the light source to project it, and lenses in front with the entire mechanism under control of the creature. Come to think about it, we too try to project a light to you . . . one that points the way for you to save money with real bargains and complete satisfaction. AFTER A SIXTH WINNER: H. Lester Barlow, vice-president of the First National Bank of Princeton, presents a check to Richard J. Ward, president of the West Windsor Little League, for the support of the bank's team in 1955. The First National has sponsored a team for eight previous years and backed a league champion five times. The league owns a field on North Fork Road complete with dugouts and grandstand.

Dan Adams: Two rounds later, he hit a blast down the same alley that cleared the 400-foot sign—a good hundred feet more than is needed for a home run in many a major league park.
Rutgers, a 2-1 victim of the Tigers last month, was on the schedule Wednesday, with Trenton State due at Clarke Field this Thursday afternoon at 4. Two more triumphs—and there are half a dozen games left on the schedule—will give Princeton more victories than any year since 1951, when a 20-and-4 mark took the Orange and Black to the NCAA's in Omaha.

TIGER CREWS Fall
In Sprinkles at Worcester. None of the six Princeton crews finished better than third in its heat in the Eastern Sprint Championships at Worcester Saturday. In the 150-lb. race, this was good enough to qualify the freshman shell for the finals, but it then finished last among six entries.

In other heats: the Jayvee 50s were fourth, the varsity 50s were sixth, the freshman heavies were fifth; the Jayvees tied for third; and the varsity was fourth. As a result, the 52-gers' total in cup competition at the 150-lb. level was one point and in the varsity, zero.

To no one's surprise, Harvard won both varsity races and both cups, the latter based on point standings compiled by all crews from each college. Cornell trailed the Crimson heavyweights by two and a half lengths.

Clear indication of the changes taking place in eastern rowing was provided by the presence in the finals of two colleges which are very much Johnson-come-lately on the rowing scene. Brown won its heat and was an impressive third behind Harvard and Cornell; Boston University was the third finalist, along with M.I.T. and Navy. In addition to Princeton, Yale not only failed to qualify but was beaten by Dartmouth, another college which has been a factor only in the post-war years.

TRACK TEAM SIXTH
In Heptagonal. Twenty-eight points brought sixth place to Princeton Saturday in the Heptagonal Games at New Haven, behind Harvard, the winner with a near-record total of 65; Navy, Cornell, Army and Yale.
The Tigers produced one triumph, sophomore Mel Branch in the triple jump. He covered 48 feet 2½ inches.
In other sports last weekend, Princeton blanked Cornell in tennis, 9-0, but the golf team lost 4-3 to Harvard. The match was played at Springfield.

GALLAGHER: 4:23 MILE
Bocaanudo Triple Winner. Asbury Park won its duel with Princeton High Saturday in a battle of unbeaten track powers (both 8-0), but the biggest fireworks were provided by Jay Gallagher and Vince Bocaanudo of Princeton. The scene was the first annual Central Jersey Group 4 Southern Division Track and Field Championship held at Ewing.
Jay ran the mile in 4:23.0, bettering the Ewing track record for that distance by 13 seconds and the Princeton school record, which he set a few weeks ago, by seven. His time is reportedly the fastest run by a high school miler in the state this year.

Vince Bocaanudo, in the face of stiff competition, won three events. In a virtuoso performance, Vince captured the 100 and 200 sprints and the broad jump. His times were 10.5, 23.0. His winning effort in the broad jump measured 20-6 1/4.

A fifth outstanding performance was that of Bart Bennett's in the 180-yard hurdle race. Both Bart and Asbury Park's Leon Sanders were timed in 18.4, but Sanders finished a halfstep in front. The time bettered Princeton High's previous record in the hurdles by three seconds.

Sports in Princeton

 next had tied it on three occasions earlier this season.
 Every ounce of effort, A highly satisfied PHS coach Jerry Grossinger said "We got every ounce of effort that we could have gotten. Overall, it was an excellent performance. We did far better than I thought we would."
 A prime example of the effort by every Little Tiger was the mile. In addition to Gallagher's seven seconds last season, Roger Constant of PHS captured third with a clocking of 4:31—seven seconds faster than he had ever run the mile before. And when Constant, who failed to place nevertheless, ran the event in 4:32 his best, by 10 seconds. "We got terrific performances from all our milers," said Grossinger.

The victory was especially sweet to Gallagher because it atoned for a defeat three days earlier, in the Jaycee Track Meet by Trenton's top miler, Dave Bradley. In that meet Bradley came from behind to nip Jay at the wire with a 4:29.5 effort. Bradley also tied the same time in Gallagher's April 13 PHS-PHS duel meet.
 Jay places a great deal of emphasis on strategy. For Saturday's meet, he opened up on the third lap, as planned, and so to his pace on the lap, that he pulled to an uncatchable margin. Unequal to the challenge, Bradley finished third. Said Grossinger, "Jay ran according to the book."

Capturing seven of the 13 events, Ashbury Park won the second meet with a total of 66 points. PHS compiled 32. Trailing far behind were Ewing, 29; Steinert, 22; Trenton 16, and Hamilton, 10.
 Second-place finishes were captured by Princeton's Tom Pasanella in the javelin and Andy Kulley in the shot put. Although he is still recovering from a bout of bronchitis, Carl Giese placed third in the half-mile with a 2:02.5 effort. Bill Aiken finished fourth in the high hurdles, fifth in the low's and fifth in the pole vault.
 All the participants will get a chance for revenge on Saturday when the annual Central Jersey Meet will be held at Asbury Park, starting at 11. On Monday, the Blue and White will engage Hamilton here in its 11th and final dual meet of the season. Wednesday is the New Brunswick Invitational.
 Wins Jaycee Meet, for the second consecutive year.

Golf: Heart Found
 Gary Player and Doug Sanders, two leading golfers on the professional tour, will play an 18-hole exhibition round at Mountain View Country Club on July 15.
 The match will be held for the benefit of the Mercer County Heart Fund. It is being sponsored by area amateur golfers, the Commerce chapters and the Mercer County Heart Association.
 The visiting professionals, who will have a clinic before their match, will receive $2,000 for their appearance. Tickets are priced at $4 if purchased in advance and at $6 at the gate.

Princeton High dominated the 19th annual Jaycee Invitational meet held Wednesday at Trenton. The Little Tigers won six events to pile up 65 points, 34 more than second-place Trenton.
 Carl DeCavalcante was named the outstanding performer in the field events on the strength of his first place in the discus (130-5 1/4) and a second place in the shot. Team-mate Kulley was the latter with a toss of 51-3/4.

Other blue ribbon winners were Aiken in the high hurdles —his time of 1:4.8 was one-tenth of a second slower than the record he set last year in the high's—Boccanfuso, 100-yard dash (10:2); and Roger Madden, high jump (20-1 1/4).
 Bennett captured the low hurdles in 19.8. His time set a new record in the Jaycee Meet.
 Second places went to the following Little Tigers: Aiken low's; Boccanfuso, 220 and broad jump; Gallagher, mile; DeCavalcante, shot and Javelin; Aiken, javelin; Pasanella's toss of 125-11 was less than two feet behind the winning distance.
 All, ten schools participated: PHS, TBS, Ewing, Steinert, Hamilton, Pemberton, Egan, Notre Dame, Hightstown, and Cathedral.

A FOOTBALL FIRST
Princeton Plans Little League
 Plans were disclosed this week for the formation of a "Midsize" Football League in Princeton for boys between the ages of 10 and 14.
 The committee responsible for the organization of the league, which is expected to begin play in the fall, consists of John S. Budd of 314 Western Way; John F. Petrone, 137 Valley Road; Fred Singer, 51 Red Hill Road; Joseph Herrmann, 630 Lake Drive; and Sandy Reynolds, 165 Terhune Road. Registration will be held Saturday from 9 to noon and Sunday, June 6, from 2 to 4 at Marquand Park.

To be eligible for the program, boys must weigh between 85 and 115 pounds and take either the Borough or Township or attend school in one of the communities. A boy will be accepted if he becomes 14 on or before November 1. There will be a five-pound leeway on the weight standard.
 The plans call for contributions from social, fraternal and civic organizations in Princeton to support the program. Members will pay only for their insurance.
 Applicants will be required to take a physical examination administered by the participant's private physician. Each boy must also have written permission from a parent or guardian.

The committee said that it plans to form six to eight leagues with equal age and weight distribution on each team. If successful, the league may seek affiliation with independent little leagues in the area to arrange for all-star contests.
 Candidates for head coaching assignments must have played at least two years of high school football. They also must have a minimum of two years' coaching experience in little league, high school, college or professional football.
 The exact specifications of field-size, schedules and equipment have not been determined. The Joint Recreation Board of Princeton has pledged its assistance in supply fields and committee is now conducting studies to determine the needs of the league and the proper regulations.

Practice sessions will begin during the first week of September. There will be no important physical contact until one week after the first practice session.
 Applicants are required to bring a birth certificate, written permission from parent or guardian and a signed certificate from a physician when registering. Those wishing further information should call 545-4344.

FANSTIC MILE: The 623rd mile run by Jay Gallagher of PHS is the best time of the high school level in New Jersey this year.

Sports In Princeton
 contention for League honors with a 4-1 record. One league game remains: Friday's tilt at Hays Allyn. Hun will end its season on Wednesday when it entertains Trenton State Jay-vees in a 2 p.m. contest.

Last Wednesday, coach John Talbot's charges committed 11 errors in a loosely-played game with visiting Pingry, and dropped an 11-7 decision. "We played very badly," commented Talbot. "Most of their errors were unearned."

Then led briefly, 6-2, at the end of three, but fell behind when Pingry scored five in the fourth. Hun starter Carl Wilson, the victim of his teammates' shabby support, pitched well under the circumstances, as gave way to Fage who worked the final three innings.

SOMERVILLE UPSETS PHS
 61-56 in track. Princeton High School's drive for an undefeated season in track & dual meet competition was halted Monday by a 50-50 Somerville squad 5-4 which caught a tired PHS team unable to rebound from two strenuous invitational meets the week before. The home team from Princeton upset Princeton, 61 to 56, to hand the visitors their first loss in nine meets.

In the past, the Blue and White had been able to pull out meet after meet by virtually averaging the field events where it is strongest. Against Somerville, however, the best the losers could manage in the pole vault was a third place by Bill Aiken. In addition, the Pi-neers swept two events where PHS is weakest — the high jump and 440 — and the domination of the two spelled defeat for Coach Jerry Groninger's forces.

Andy Kuley and Carl De-Cavalcante finished 1-2 in the shot and reversed this order in the discus. Roger Madden, showing signs of recovering from a knee injury, captured the broad jump, and Dan Tin-ally added the javelin to the PHS collection of firsts. But aside from Jay Gallagher's triumph in the mile and Bart Bennett's in the 120-yard low hurdles, that was about it in the running events as far as the Little Tigers were concerned.

The overall poor times and distances were evidence of how spent the losers were. A good example was Vince Baccus-sio, who finished first in the 100, 220 and broad jump against top flight competition in Saturday's divisional meet at Peing. The best Vinnie could do Monday was a second in the broad jump and a third in the 220.

WOOD CHECKS DECLINE
 By Two-Hitting Noter Dame. A fine, two-hit pitching effort by sophomore Tommy Wood, who pitched the last of his team's three victories, stopped the persistent swelling in the PHS lost column. The victory was only the Little 2/3 the innings he has not at-tigers' third in 13 games, and bowed an earned run. Frank-lended a three-game losing in one of the two teams PHS had beaten earlier this year.

Neither of the two hits fig-ured in the three runs tallied by the home team as PHS won, 6-3. Wood can now claim two of his team's three victories. He has not lost.
 The Little Tigers scored in the first inning when they scored four runs. Wood aiding his own cause by lining home two. Three walks and singles by Curt Schaefer and W. J. n. e. Martin preceded Woods' blow. Curt Mitchell and Martin collected the other PHS hits.

The previous day, Coach Harry Zoll's team lost any line of finishing with a 500 mark when it was defeated, 3-2.

It was the Little Tigers' turn to get only two hits. Paul Wal-lad's single drove in a pair of runs in the first inning; Mitch-ell got the second single. Chris Fischer (1-3) took the loss. He was relieved by Joe Harding who worked the last three innings, raising to 6 and 2/3 the innings he has not at-tigers' third in 13 games, and bowed an earned run. Frank-lended a three-game losing in one of the two teams PHS had beaten earlier this year.

Depending on whose score-book you read, this game ended with three hits in its Thursday contest with Cathed-ral & PHS, 1. The game was played in Trenton.

The Cathedral scorer gave pitcher Steve Selbita a no-hitter. Princeton's scorer, with constant more logic, gave him to Gil Trenton. Ed Hull and Wal-lad. Howard Rifkin (0-3) absorbed the loss.

News Of The CHURCHES

SLUM PROJECT BACKED By Frontiersmen, This Saturday, a batch of 550 or more youngsters who live in the blighted area behind the Episcopal Church of St. John the Evangelist, New Brunswick, will go on a bus trip to the Wayside Museum in the Watchung Mountains.

The great event in their small lives also marks the close of a Saturday afternoon recreation program which began last fall under the leadership of the Rev. Raymond E. Buntaine. St. John's, a support of the fund, pledged at up to $50 a month, came from the New Brunswick branch of Frontiers International, a service group headed by Carl Brown of 28 Birch Avenue. Other Princeton members include Braxton Elberbe, Langford Bolling, Sherman Bates, Paul Minnall and E. Lee Jones.

The Saturday afternoon sessions have been by young volunteers from Douglas and Rutgers, with behind-the-scenes guidance from Dr. Bertram Gaskard of the Douglas faculty, a former social worker. The program is closing because the college students are scattering for the summer, although the Rev. Mr. Buntaine is "looking for people interested in kids who will donate some time" to keep things going.

"The value of this program is immeasurable," Mr. Brown comments. "It is in the section of town where the children need help. Before this, they had no place to play. We were able to keep them out of trouble. . . I think they are learning discipline and how to get along with other people."

According to the Rev. Mr. Buntaine, the program is a "drop in the bucket" serving only the grade school children within three or four blocks just as the Neighborhood House, which has a five or six day program, reaches only a couple of blocks around it.

"There is a need of a seven-day program at St. John's, which would include the preschool and high school youngsters — currently neglected because "we can only do one thing at a time."

CONCERT PLANNED

By Handbell Choir. The Memorial Handbell Choir of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church will close its fifth anniversary spring concert series with an informal program at 4 p.m. on Sunday at the Church. The community is welcome.

Organized in the spring of 1960 by Mrs. Kenneth Wirb, who has since become church organist, the choir has played for wedding and special services at St. Andrew's. Sunday performance will be the choir's first full concert in the church. A varied program of music specially arranged for handbells is planned, followed by a reception.

During the past five years, the choir has played at Trenton State Hospital, Foots Nursing Home, Merwick, Jamesburg State Home for the Blind, Princeton University Library Christmas program, Lawrenceville Homes by the Sea and Church. First Presbyterian Church of Newark, Avenue Presbyterian Church and Princeton Methodist Church.

This year performances were held at the Hunterdon County Grange, the mother and daughter banquet of Princeton Baptist Church and the New Jersey Eastern Star Home for the Aged, Somerville.

The handbell choir began with a set of borrowed bells. A set of 37 chromatic bells, each given as a memorial by members and friends of the church, was purchased from the White-chapel Bell Foundry in England in 1962. Last fall, three new bells were added.

TO INSTALL OFFICERS

At WSCS Service. The Rev. Dr. Leon W. Gibson will install the new officers of the Women's Society of Christian Service of Princeton Methodist Church during the 11 a.m. service this Sunday.

Those assuming office are Mrs. Harvey Hook, president; Mrs. J. C. Baumgardner, president; Miss Hazel Benjamin, secretary; and Mrs. Robert Irwin, treasurer.

New secretaries to be installed are Mrs. Irving Ness, membership; Mrs. T. Roba Webb, Christian social relations; David Martin, missionary education and service; Mrs. Hartwell Calceote, campus ministry; Leon W. Gibson, spiritual life; Mrs. John Donald, music program; Mrs. Lee Dierdorf, supply and Mrs. John Harck, local church activities. Circle leaders and co-leaders for 1965-66 to be installed are Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. Robert Simpson, Mrs. Milo Wadlin, Mrs. Mae Weisiger, Mrs. Fred Buddenbaum, Mrs. Frank Reicher, Mrs. Glenn Pryling, Mrs. John Vaccaro and Mrs. George Beck.

BULLETIN NOTES

CHARMING — here is a fine home that reveals a certain pride in ownership which you are aware of the instant you enter it. On a lovely lot in the Township, sloping down to a brook. 3 Bedrooms, 1 1/2 baths. Attractive living room, dining room, playroom, kitchen and basement. Big terrace off the family room. $35,400

RARELY have we seen a property where both land and house have been designed in such excellent taste. Ideal for a retired couple, or for young marrieds — as this home could easily be added to. Foyer, sunken living room with fireplace, dining room, a beautiful kitchen, a rear deck with your own view of the woods, 2 bedrooms, 2 baths. On 1 1/2 acres just west of Princeton. $36,000

NEW COLONIAL . . . nestled among beautiful shade trees on a 2-acre plot, this beautiful home has 5 bedrooms and 3 baths — plus maid's room and bath on the first floor. Huge living room with fireplace, paneled family room with built-in bar, dining room, kitchen with lots of breakfast space, laundry, mud room and large 2-car garage. The location, though, is what makes this property unique. Across the road from Stuart Country Day School, and near the new Princeton Day Schools, this is your opportunity to learn the advantages of the architect's new "campus concept" of country living.

(Sole Agent) $89,500

MANOR HOUSE . . . this superb old Colonial dwelling is one of those places that everyone who dreams of living in the country would like to own. Only twelve minutes from Princeton, in real farming territory, it stands under magnificent shade trees, behind the long driveway that curves up to the front door. Inside, the beautiful living and dining rooms, the cozy paneled library, the very modern kitchen, the delightful game room with its bar, and its 6 bedrooms and 4 baths — all this lives up to the promise of luxurious living which strikes you when you first glimpse the place. You know that it must have plenty of land for privacy, and it does—33 acres, approximately . . . But you get the surprise of your life when you stroll out of the vast living room and into the indoor swimming pool annex. In its own brick structure, 60 feet in diameter, the heated pool is big enough for a platoon to splash in. And the flagstoned terrace around the pool has enough space for them to sit and feast on steaks from the enormous built-in barbecue.

(Sole Agent) $175,000

BUILD ON THE LAKE . . . gorgeous location, a steeply sloping lot to challenge your architect's imagination, and city sewer available so you can build at once.
